About the Journal

SOCIAL WORK EDUCATION, RESEARCH AND ACTION (SWERA) is the official journal of the National Association of Professional Social Workers in India (NAPSWI). It is peer reviewed refereed Quarterly Journal designed to share and disseminate knowledge and promote exchange in the fields of social work, research and community action programmes. SWERA aims at advancing the theory, bridging the gap between theory and practice and developing the indigenous knowledge for the fraternity. It provides a platform to the educators, researchers, practitioners of social work for publishing their innovative ideas in the form of articles, research papers and book reviews. SWERA shall be published triannual (thrice in a year). The first issue of JSWERA Year-I, Vol.-1 January-April 2015 is out of Press and second issue (May-August) will appear in the month of September. The articles/research papers/book reviews/Field practices are invited for third volume. We are also accepting books for review. Authors/publisher can send two copies of books for review.
Manuscript Submission Guidelines

Before submitting the manuscript, authors are advised to ensure that they have carefully read and observed the following guidelines:

- A Full-length article/paper submission must be in English, typed in MS-Word in Times New Roman with font size 12 and not more than 7,000 words in length and double-spaced throughout including tables, diagrams, illustrations, references etc.
- An abstract of not more than 100 words describing the article's main findings and conclusions must be included along with 3-5 keywords.
- In addition, the journal is interested in brief notes of up to 2,000 words, on topics such as reports of research in progress, examples of unresolved problems, descriptions of policy, and current programmes that would be of interest to the social work fraternity.
- Bibliographical references should be arranged alphabetically and given at the end of the text in the APA Referencing Style (Latest Edition) only.
- All contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship should be listed in an ‘Acknowledgements’ section. Any such acknowledgement should appear first at the end of the article prior to references.
- Authors must furnish the full contact details including name, designation, affiliating institution, contact number, e-mail ID and mailing address.
- All papers must be submitted via the online system.
- Manuscripts not conforming to above guidelines will be rejected.

SWERA observes to a rigorous review policy in which a duly constituted Committee will review the submitted article/papers and reserves the right to edit the materials and/or ask for modifications and resubmission of the same. Information regarding acceptance/rejection will be communicated to the authors subsequently.

SWERA takes the issues of copyright infringement, plagiarism or other breaches of best practice in publication very seriously. It seeks to protect the reputation of the journal against malpractice. Hence, submitted articles will be checked with duplication-checking software. Where an article is found to have plagiarised other work or included third-party copyright material without permission or with insufficient acknowledgement or where the authorship of the article is contested, While SWERA reserves the right to take action including taking up the matter with the head of institution/department or dean of the author's institution and/or relevant academic bodies or societies; banning the author from publication in the SWERA or appropriate legal action, the authors shall be held solely responsible for any consequential outcomes, damages, compensation in any form.

Any correspondence, queries or requests for additional information with regard to manuscript submission should be sent to the editorial office whereas other queries can be directed to Managing Editor.

National Association of Professional Social Workers in India (NAPSWI)

NAPSWI is a non-profit, non-political, national level organization dedicated to the promotion of standards and enhancement of the status of the social work profession. It is one of the largest associations of social work professionals in India. NAPSWI was born in 2005, following the concerns of professional social workers to cater to the need of having an organization at the national level. Since its inception, it has been making attempts to bring professional social workers on one platform, so that a collectivity identity of the profession could emerge. NAPSWI intends to fulfill the twin purposes of promoting the social work profession within the country together with safeguarding and protecting the interests of Social work professionals. While its Secretariat is located at CSRD, Institute of Social Work, Ahmednagar, the Central/President’s office of NAPSWI is operating from the Department of Social Work, University of Delhi. NAPSWI has number of activities which include organising Indian Social Work Congress every year, publications of books, a professional journal of Social Work education, research and action (JSWERA), annual Resource Book on Social work educational institutions, organizing discussions/symposium/debates, granting awards, advocacy, liasioning, networking, academic support, membership services etc. Some of the other benefits of membership are reduced registration fees in seminar and conferences, free newsletter, listing in NAPSWI Directory, subsidized publications of NAPSWI, knowledge sharing, academic support etc.
